Four Is Acquitted

BROXTON, O., December 11.—At twenty minutes after one o'clock Friday afternoon, the jury in the case of Valerie Fourt, on trial for manslaughter, in common pleas court, rendered a verdict of not guilty.

The jury had received the case shortly after ten o'clock, after the usual charge to the jury by Judge Payne and remained out for three hours. It had begun to appear that a protracted period might be necessary for the decision, but the verdict of acquittal came twenty minutes after the noon hour recess. The defendant received the verdict calmly, as did the relatives of Mrs. Nora Hunt, who was killed by an automobile, which it was charged young Fourt operated on the state road near Proctorville.

Rest Your Stomach

New Treatment for Dyspeptics

Stop abusing your poor defenseless stomach. Don't dose it with drugs and pills. If you suffer from indigestion, try Nature's own cure, which is the treatment now advocated by medical science.

"Give your overworked stomach a rest," the doctors say. In this new rest cure for stomach ills, Lenitone, The Corrective Food, is used with great success. Lenitone is a peculiarly bland and non-irritating food which does not tax the digestive organs unduly—as do ordinary foods—yet it is packed with nourishment.

You take Lenitone with milk or water in beverage form. It is delicious. Buy it from your druggist. Prescribed uses given in the pamphlet enclosed with every package. Excellent for undernourished children, infants, and convalescents. The Lenitone Laboratories, Cleveland, Ohio.

The court held that the accused men practiced no fraud and the prisoners were ordered released when Mason told the court that friends had refunded his money.

Ignis-Fatua.
The ignis-fatua is a pale-bluish flame which appears after sunset floating about two feet above the ground, sometimes remaining fixed and sometimes traveling. Some authorities think it is due to the presence of phosphoric hydrogen gas, others, to the combustion of methane. It is seen most frequently in northern Germany, in the swamps and moorland districts of northwestern England, and in the lowlands of Scotland.

ECONOMY AND MERIT
Combined in Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Blood Medicine.

In spite of the increased costs and great scarcity of important roots, herbs, etc., the standard of quality and the quantity of Hood's Sarsaparilla have been faithfully maintained and are today the same as when this medicine was first perfected and offered to the public.

A bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla will average to last three or four weeks, while others last but a week or two, and some even less time.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is effective as a blood purifying and tonic medicine and also after the flu, grip, fevers and other debilitating, blood-poisoning diseases. It purifies the blood, creates an appetite, and makes food taste good.

Members of the Gilbert Grocery Company of this city the death summons came unexpectedly last night at 6 o'clock to Charles J. Lytle, who had been a valued employee of this company since September 1917.

Mr. Lytle was in his usual good health yesterday and it is presumed that after he had climbed into his car last night he was stricken with heart trouble and died in a few seconds.

A physician was called, but his services were not needed.

Popular, affable, congenial, Charles Lytle had traveled the border counties on the Ohio river west of Portsmouth for many years. He was a very successful salesman as he was always fair to the trade, and by sheer hard work he had accumulated his share of this world's goods. He was well known here, where the news of his sudden passing away will be learned with genuine regret as to know Charles Lytle was to like him as he possessed qualities that made for enduring friendship.

His wife is postmarked at Augusta, Ky., where they make their home.

GET MORE BUTTER
Mrs. Hattie Meade of Glenn, Missouri, says: "I was not making enough butter from my cow's milk production for a family of two. After using Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders a short time she gave a half gallon more milk a day, and a pound of butter a day."

Dr. LeGear's Stock Powders give to milk cows just what is needed to keep the digestive organs in proper condition, so that they get the most possible good from their feed. Give equally wonderful results when used for horses, hogs, and sheep, because they are a tonic, appetizer and worm expeller.

It matters not what ailment you may have among your stock or poultry, it will pay you to get the proper Dr. LeGear's Remedy from your dealer. They are the doctor's personal prescription, compounded during his 25 years of Veterinary Practice and Expert Poultry Breeding. They must satisfy you, or your dealer will refund your money—only.

PILGRIM FATHERS WERE SEPARATISTS.
The Puritans sought the reform of the Church of England. The Pilgrims were Separatists from the first, who had already left England and formed an independent congregation in Leyden, whence they came to New England. They numbered forty-one families, 102 persons, landing at Plymouth December 20, 1620. They had previously made a covenant known as the Mayflower covenant, which bound them into a civil state with a religious basis. They wished to found "a church without a bishop and a state without a king."

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, fashion, news, education, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me through The Portsmouth Times the names of the pictures that were at the Columbia and Lyric Theatres, respectively, on Thanksgiving Day, two (2) years ago, 1918. Also who the leading characters were played by in each.

MOVIE FAN

By the World Forge, a Vitaphone picture, was the attraction at the Columbia, and "Inside the Lines" was the play at the Lyric. This was a war picture, and did not feature any special stars.

Franklin Furnace, O.—Dear Dolly—Please tell me in what section of Green Township Powertown is in? Also how many people live in that section?

Powertown is the county seat of Green Township and is located in the eastern part of the township. There are only about 25 people in the city of Powertown, but there are several other families living in that neighborhood.

Dear Dolly—I would like to be a trained nurse and what I want to know is if I have to have a high school education or not. Dolly, there is a fellow who has been trying to get to talk to me over my girl friend's phone, and it just happens that he always calls when I am not at her house. Dolly, what would you do in such a case?

Student nurses must have completed one year of high school work or its equivalent. If the man wants to talk to you he should call at your home and not annoy your girl friend by calling you when he knows you are not there.

Miss Dolly Wise—Is there any place in town where umbrellas can be mended? If there is, please print address in tonight's Times. Thanking you for any information you may give me.

PEGGY

You can have them mended at 421 Gay street and in the rear of 1143 Tenth street.

Dear Miss Wise—Please print a recipe for making marshmallow candy. Could you tell me when the tax books close? ONE OF YOUR READERS

Marshmallow Candy—Take two tablespoons of gelatin, three tablespoons each of hot and cold water, and two cups of sugar. Boil the sugar until it forms a soft ball in water. Put the gelatin to soak in cold water a few minutes, then melt by adding hot water. Pour the sugar syrup over the gelatin, beat twenty minutes and add a teaspoon of vanilla. The beaten white of an egg improves when the mixture is half beaten. Pour the pan with corn starch. Cut into inch squares before wholly chilled, dipping the knife into the corn starch. This makes enough for twenty people.

The tax books are supposed to close on January 10th.

Meet me at Nye's fountain.

BILLY WHISKER

BY FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

As is the invariable custom with all thrifty farm folk, the Trout family was with as soon as the day had begun its journey across the sky. Just as the first bright streaks of light shut up from the horizon in the east, Mr. Trout went to the stock barn to do his morning chores, and his good wife was busy in her kitchen preparing the morning meal. The boys were eager to lend a hand—an extraordinary state of affairs, to say the least, but they were so brimming full of excitement at the prospect of the day before them that finally they were banished from the kitchen, their mother declaring them a nuisance and far more of a hindrance than a help.

"Look like a fine day ahead of us," Mr. Trout reported as he returned. "The little fog in the valley is clearing fast, and by noon it will be warm enough for our picnic dinner in the maple grove."

"Evening rest and morning gray sees the traveler on his way," quoted Mrs. Trout. "I was not wrong about the weather, for that night never fails."

"Goodly! Goodly!" exulted Dick. "Let's hurry, father."

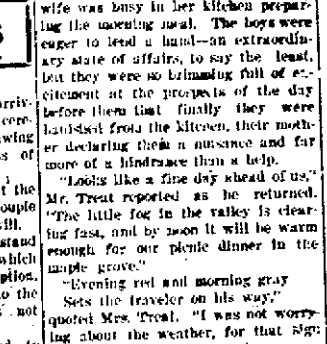

"Well, all the stock has been fed, and my work is done. If mother will pick the lunch, we will be off within an hour. I've taken a look at the automobile and everything is in shape for the start."

"I'd much rather go in the carriage with Browny," remonstrated Mrs. Trout nervously. "You know, father."

"Oh, father, please don't!" chorused Tom and Henry in a breath.

"I'll drive Browny," cried chert Billy Dick, always ready to acquiesce to any plan.

"Now mother," wheedled Mr. Trout. "don't you worry! That machine isn't a lot of things about the auto."

Boys and girls who have lived all their years in the city have wanted ideas of all the good things that went into the Trout hamper that morning. There was a crisp salad of celery, apples, nuts and lettuce, dozens and dozens of sandwiches with a liberal filling of buttered ham, pickles, tomato slices, cucumber pickles, pickled peppers, pickled onions—cold, chicken, sliced ham, baked beans, mince pie, pumpkin pie, doughnuts, and a delicious cake.

The preparation of the lunch was Mrs. Trout's special pride, and all her householdery art was directed to make it the best her oven could produce. (That the lunch was destined to meet a fate.)

BY PHILLIS PHILLIPS

THE SURPRISE VISIT.

Later on that same afternoon, after the rehearsal, Fern came to call for her cousin, now the heroine of the hour. She laughed merrily at sight of Gwendolyn, surrounded by both male and female members of the company.

"Here, you people, less noise, there. Gwendolyn's got to come home, and right away, too. Her father's just arrived, and he insists that he must see her immediately."

"Father here?" gasped Gwendolyn in astonishment. "Why, what on earth—has something gone wrong at home? Tell me, Fern, and she shook her head convulsively excitedly.

"Don't know anything about it at all. All I know is that he arrived about an hour ago. Came up, asked for me, and for you, then introduced himself, dear old thing, and hugged the life out of me when he found out that I was Fern. After that, well, that was nothing to do but to explain that you were here."

"What did he say?" said Gwendolyn breathlessly.

"Say? Not much, except that he seemed powerfully excited at the thought of your actually being on the stage and so independent, as he put it. What really took the old gentleman's eye and heart, though, was the sight of you. Gwendolyn, how he did stare! I now see where you really got your fine appreciation for life and color from, my dear. The dear old dad, he looked about and seemed carried away with everything that he saw. It was too lovely for words. We really must give him the time of his life if he plays the night, Gwendolyn."

Gwendolyn flew out of her costume.

At two o'clock this afternoon the marriage of Miss Ethel Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curry of Long Meadow, became the bride of Mr. William Dressler of Scottdale, the marriage taking place at the home of the Rev. M. H. Brinkwell of New Boston. A beaming suit of dark blue with accessories to correspond were worn by the bride who was attended by Miss Thelma Egerton. Mr. Paul Bauer served as groomsmen. The bridegroom, who is employed at the Whitaker-Glennier plant, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dressler of Scottdale. Mr. and Mrs. Dressler have gone to homekeeping in their new home which has been furnished for immediate occupancy.

Mrs. Nell Stiles, Misses Whinnie and Thelma T. Stewart and Edith Horne will be the assistant hostesses at the wedding of the Young Women's Home Missionary Circle of Trinity church to be held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Gilbert Monroe of Office street.

FOR TURPID LIVER

Tennessee Lumberman Talks of His Successful Use of Black-Draught for Colds and Headaches.

Jameson, Tenn.—"I have used Theodor's Black-Draught for years, in fact it is the only liver medicine that does me any good," says Mr. L. A. Tagan, a well-known lumberman of this place. "When I was single, I used it for headaches, and especially if I got a cold and feel feverish, I take a good dose of Black-Draught, and it sets me right."

"Since I have been married, I have used it in my family, and never have found its equal for torpid liver or disarranged stomach, especially with children. I can recommend Black-Draught, and gladly do so."

Every member of the family occasionally needs the assistance that Black-Draught can give. In helping to cleanse the system and relieve or prevent the troubles that come from a lazy, torpid liver.

If your liver is not doing its duty, you may suffer with headache, constipation, biliousness, indigestion, etc. Unless relief is obtained, serious sickness may result. In its long and successful use, Theodor's Black-Draught has been for it in thousands of cases to relieve such disorders, by stimulating the liver to do its important work.

Ask for Theodor's Black-Draught, and insist on the genuine. NO. 17

LEVI DE BORD SHOOT'S WIFE, ATTEMPTS TO KILL CHILDREN, THEN FIRES BULLET THROUGH BRAIN

Tragedy Is Enacted In Home On Scioto Trail; Mrs. DeBord May Recover, Physicians Say

Seized with a maniacal impulse to wipe out his family, Levi De Bord, aged 27, who resided on Scioto Trail, near Hempstead Hospital, last night at 5:30, shot his wife, Mrs. Laura De Bord in the back, fired two shots at his children Ethel Audra, aged 6 and Jesse Mae, aged 3 and then turned the weapon upon himself. His aim, blinded by mental aberration was faulty so far as his children were concerned as neither one was shot.

De Bord then placed the muzzle of his 38 Colt revolver to his right temple, pulled the trigger and the bullet sped through his brain, came out of his head just to the left ear and passed through a panel in the kitchen door. He lived about ten minutes after shooting himself. His wife was conveyed to Hempstead hospital, where Dr. O. R. Micklethwait said her condition was very serious.

The bullet lodged in Mrs. De Bord's back near the spine and she is paralyzed from her hips down. She never lost consciousness and insisted at the hospital last night that her two bright-eyed well dressed children be at her bedside to comfort her.

At Hempstead hospital this morning it was stated that Mrs. De Bord rested fairly well last night and she had a chance to recover. An X-ray was taken of her body to locate the bullet.

Wonders Incoherent Words, Begins Shooting

According to Mrs. DeBord her husband came home about 5:30 Friday night, mumbled a few incoherent words and then pulled a revolver out of his coat pocket.

"Great heavens, Lord, put that pistol away, or you will kill one of our babies," Mrs. DeBord told her husband. It was then that she says DeBord approached her as she got up from her sewing machine and as she entered the kitchen of her home DeBord fired a bullet at her at close range. Mrs. DeBord sank to the floor and says she begged her husband not to shoot the children. DeBord, she says, then fired at Ethel and Jesse Mae as they ran screaming from the kitchen into the dining room. Without uttering another word DeBord, his wife says, placed the muzzle of his revolver to his right temple and pulled the trigger. When he fell his body lay within three feet of Mrs. DeBord, who was unable to move.

She was so shocked and excited that Mrs. DeBord says it took five minutes after the deadly revolver lay back again life would be worth living. DeBord frequently remarked to his wife:

"Let's you must quit worrying about Harold. He is gone and no one can bring him back." Mrs. DeBord says she frequently told her husband:

"Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, brother-in-law and sister of Mrs. DeBord, spent Thursday night at the latter's home and they stated last night that DeBord talked very queerly and that his mind rambled. "He would be talking about one thing and then suddenly jump to another subject with no apparent reason. There has been acting strangely for three or four months."

Mrs. and Mrs. Brown told a Times man at the hospital last night. "I was afraid he would do just what he did and my wife and I have often talked about it," Mrs. Brown said. He was one of the first men to reach DeBord. He says that one of the bullets lodged in the kitchen floor, one in the wall of the kitchen, one lodged in the wall of the bedroom, one in the wall of the bathroom and one passed through the dead man's head.

DeBord found the Colt revolver (which he had in his pocket) and he turned it over to the police. He was one of the first men to reach DeBord. "I COULD TALK ALL DAY ABOUT TANLAC"

Akron Woman Gains Twenty-four Pounds And Health Is Restored—Nothing Else Helped Her.

"I have gained twenty-four pounds in weight and could talk all day about the good Tanlac has done me and then I tell it all," said Mrs. Sarah Ross, 102 North Walnut St., Akron, recently. "Two years ago I had an operation which left me in such a bad condition, I had to break up housekeeping, and it seemed that I just could not regain my health and strength. I could scarcely eat anything, and even the lightest of foods caused me terrible distress. Often after meals I became so sick I couldn't retain anything on my stomach. "I could scarcely sleep any, and would lie awake all hours of the night. When morning came I always felt so tired and drowsy I could hardly get out of bed, and I had an awful bitter taste in my mouth which stayed with me all day. "It seems that I tried every medicine that could be bought, but neither that nor several special treatments did me any good. Finally my brother came to see me from Pittsburgh and told me how Tanlac had helped him, and bought me a bottle. "Well, I improved from the first, and the day I finished my first bottle I ate a big supper of liver and onions, and went to bed and slept like a child until morning. We have gone back to housekeeping now, and I am doing all my housework without the least trouble. "Every time I write to my brother I thank him for telling me about Tanlac, and I just wish I could personally tell every sufferer about this grand medicine. Tanlac certainly has been a blessing to me, and I wouldn't think of being without it."

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher & Streich Pharmacy and the leading druggists in every town.—Adv.

General Motors Truck Plant Resumes Work

PONTIAC, Mich., Dec. 11.—The General Motors Truck plant has resumed operations after a period of four weeks idleness. About half the workers are re-employed on a production schedule calling for 400 machines for the remainder of this month. According to B. J. Day, manager, normal operation may be expected soon after the new year.

spent most of his nights at home. He was not jealous of me and domestic infidelity did not prompt his terrible deed."

Mrs. DeBord says her husband got up as usual yesterday morning and was in his customary good humor. He worked at the plant of the DeBord Manufacturing company, but he did not work yesterday. He came home for dinner, chatted gayly with his family and about two o'clock started down town to pay his electric bill and gas bill.

"When will you be home?" Mrs. DeBord says she asked her husband as he put on his coat to leave. "I'll be home about 5 o'clock, Laura, so you and the kiddies wait on me for supper," he replied.

When he returned his mind was inflamed and he started in to wipe out his little family.

Mr. and Mrs. DeBord formerly resided at 1716 Eighth street. They bought a home on the Scioto Trail last month and were moving there in good shape. Mrs. DeBord said last night. She insisted, as did her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, that she and her husband had always gotten along well and that they never quarreled. They however, of late had frequently talked about the funny actions of DeBord.

Lincoln tonight, Nazimova in "The Wonderful Motive Franchise" (Revolution). Also "The Last City" Serial. "Revelation" is a stupendous picture drama, a worthy vehicle for the genius of the great Nazimova. It tells the story of Joline, a model living in the Latin quarter of Paris, who finds a soul through the agency of the sacred rose bush. Through Joline a miracle is performed, when a pious monk who sees her standing beside the sacred bush sees shining in her eyes the pure spirit of the Madonna. The bush bursts into bloom. But this miracle is as nothing compared to Revelation by which Joline's whole nature is transformed and purified. Echoes of the Great War are heard in Revelation, and Joline finds her happiness first in service and then in love. Also another chapter of the thrilling serial "The Last City" filmed in the jungles of Africa.

"The Street Called Straight." Taken from Basil King's Great Novel of the Same Name, and One of the Best Pictures of the Year, is at the Strand tonight. Also "The Street Called Straight" has been adapted to the screen and as an Excellent Authors' production, it will appear at the Strand tonight last time control by an all star cast that includes such favorite players as Naomi Childers and Milton Sills. It is not a drama of elemental action but one which presents a new view, it reveals the kindly influence derived from the practice of tolerance and offers characters that are honest, straightforward human beings. His moral emphasizes the philosophy "do unto others." Henry Gulion has emphasized funds to keep up appearances. What was he to do? His daughter must not suffer. There was one way out—follow the "street called straight."

Wondering What Makes The Comedian So Comical

MOUNTAINTOWN, W. Va., Dec. 11.—The rumor that Georgia Tech would meet West Virginia here at football next fall as the first game of a two-year agreement was not confirmed here today, though Mountaineer authorities admitted negotiations were on that West Virginia favored the game. It was announced that Bucknell University had agreed to play here either on October 15 or 20.

Eller Wants More Money

Manager coach of the Reds says Gianta Eller has demanded an increase in salary and says he will give the game unless he gets it.

Stars Must Pay Penalties

Being a star athlete has its limitations. George Gipp, Notre Dame's brilliant backfield star, pushed himself into the top class by entering the game against Indiana although his shoulder was dislocated. Three days later pneumonia set in, and now Gipp has settled for 2000 Notre Dame students as his tips are posted telling how the great Gipp is fighting the game of his life in a sick room.

Bull Dogs' In Big Game Today

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.--The Canton Bowl, long led by Jim Thorpe, and the lion A. A. of Phoenixville, Pa., met here today in what promised to be one of the hardest fought professional football games ever seen in this city.

Goldie Rapp To Play Second

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—John J. McGraw, manager, and Charles A. Stoneham, president of the New York Giants, returned today from Cuba to attend the major and minor leagues meeting which opens Saturday.

In discussing plans for the coming season, McGraw said he has decided to buy the silver purchased from St. Paul of the American Association, and to use the base "John J. Frisch," he said, "is doubtfully one of the best third infielders I see not the best, in the game. I see no reason to shift the infield. Happ, I am sure, will make good second, and with these stars in the infield, the Giants will be well equipped."

Former Giant Star Dies

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—George Browne, former major league baseball player who died tonight at his home in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was known as one of the fastest men in baseball. He played as "lead man" with the champion Giant team of 1904 and 1905, with high fielding and batting averages.

Judge Landis To Officiate

CLEVELAND, O., December 11.—Judge K. M. Landis, head of the new baseball commission, will officiate next summer at the raising of the first pitcher's career monument ever won by a Cleveland team, according to President Sanford, of the Cleveland Rotary.

Mr. Sanford, who just returned from Chicago, said Judge Landis has accepted President James C. Dunn's invitation to officiate.

SCIOTOVILLE TEAM ROMPS OVER WAVERLY

Players Are Indicted On Criminal Conspiracy

LOS ANGELES, Cal. Dec. 11.—Arrest and arraignment were expected today of at least one of the four men indicted on charges of criminal conspiracy late yesterday by the Los Angeles county grand jury, after an inquiry of two months' duration into charges of corruption in Pacific Coast baseball in the 1919 season.

That one was W. Baker ("Babe") Dorton, former Vernon first baseman. The other three indicted were Earl V. Mizzert, and W. E. Ittner, former Salt Lake outfielders, and Nathan Raymond, alleged gambler of Seattle, Washington. The men are charged specifically with having conspired to "throw" games in the final Salt Lake-Vernon series in Los Angeles in the 1919 season, a felony punishable by prison terms of not more than two years, fines of not more than $5,000 or both.

The grand jury's indictments cleared the Vernon team of 1919 of charges made by Bortion that his team mates joined him in substituting a $200,000 "pool," with which he "toyed" enough games to win the pennant.

Bortion, whose charges resulted in the investigation, made several "demands" for the inquiry before an official action was taken. He contended would clear him of charges of gambling which resulted in his suspension.

To Formulate New National Agreement

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—The greatest convention of baseball interests ever assembled in this country, involving a program for complete reorganization of the sport's government, got under way here today, after shadowing all other problems facing baseball.

Participants from all professional branches of "the national game" was the formulation of a new national agreement.

The sessions will continue for several days, under the presidency of Judge K. G. Landis, newly appointed head of the sport.

Behind the great task of formulating and enacting a new constitution, which it is hoped will satisfy all parties in the agreement, a number of other important matters are being considered, including important deals involving exchange of major league players, many of which have been rumored recently.

BRENNAN AND DEMPSEY WINDING UP TRAINING FOR BOUT

Undismayed by the fate of Billy Miller in his bout with Jack Dempsey, heavyweight king, at Boston Harbor, Bill, last July fought Ben Brumby, putting the finishing touch on his training for a crack at the champ. Bill and Dempsey will meet December 14, at Madison Square garden, New York. Few experts concede Brumby a match with a chance against the "Big Boy" Miller, but he has one asset: in his favor that many bulky heavies lack. "He can step around on his toes and box after the manner of the little fellows. This may at least help him to keep out of the worst of the blows while and give him a chance to show his speed." Pictures above of the two fighters are the latest ones of the pair. Both were photographed during workouts.

GIBBONS MAY MEET DEMPSEY

TOLEDO, O., December 11.—A fifteen round boxing bout to a referee's decision between Jack Dempsey, world's champion heavyweight, and Tommy Gibbons, of St. Paul, is planned by Ad Thacher, according to a statement Thacher made here today. Thacher, the man who assisted Tex Rickard in bringing the Willard-Dempsey match to Toledo a year ago last July, said he had signed Gibbons to a contract and was waiting to hear from Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey.

It is proposed to stage the bout shortly after the first of the year Thacher said.

DEMPSEY IN GREAT SHAPE

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Jack Dempsey, tigerman of the ring, is in tip-top fighting trim for his nearby bout with Bill Brennan. Jack admitted this morning, and his trainer, Ben Smith, with a knowing shake of his ring-wise head. There will be no more heavy going for Dempsey until he goes sending him to Brennan on Tuesday at Madison Square Garden.

When asked if he expected to win from Brennan he only smiled in a non-committal way. Yet in his mind there was a certain suggestion of confidence as to the outcome. But in the kind of confidence that marks bluffed egotism.

LOSING BANTAM TITLE TO ONE JOE LYNCH

Mr. Pete Herman, who has zealously guarded the bantam-weight title for about five years, stands a mighty good chance of having his block and title knocked off by Josephus Battler Lynch when these boys meet in New York December 22. The fact that the bout will be decided by a referee means that Pedro will have to land a bit and not be content with escaping real damage.

Oh Boy, Winchester Team
Smothers P. H. S. Floor Squad

A basketball five representing P. Gulker, Heer, Brant, and Manning. H. S. journeyed to Winchester Friday evening and in a match game with the high school five there suffered defeat by a score of 25 to 5. Only two of the regulars, Gier and Doll made the trip, the other local players being Coach McComb accompanied the team. The local players returned home with one fact settled, and that was that Winchester, although a small place has a fast and mighty basketball five.

Volley Ball League

Selects	10	28	.260	Standard Supply	12	24	.333
Allies	7	33	.167	Doctors	5	31	.139

The Wholesalers jump w' too close to a first division berth, and will now fight it out with the Excelsors for third place, as they took three straight from the already down trodden Selects, last night, when they met them at Whitechapel Hall. Charlie Howland was the real star of the game, always coming to the aid of and steadying his team when they came to a critical point. Haas played an excellent game as well, sending the ball starting, instead of straight across the net. The Selects played in poor form, always staying their rallies when there was nothing to be gained. Lewin was the only one who could be said to have starred, and he served from 3 up to 14, when the other side was game ball.

The line ups were as follows:

Wholesalers: C. M. Howland, Capt.; Walter Haas; Earl Reinhold, Ori; Ricker, Lloyd Craden and S. J. Means.

Selects: Wm. Harris, Capt.; Harry

The Selby Calls fattened their already good percentage last night when they made it three straight from the Ministers, on the High School floor. The Calls played with only five men, but the work of Rogers Selby, who played like a flame all over the floor, backed up by Eddie Hersh in old line form, more than made up for the difference. Rogers Lloyd played an excellent field game. Butler, with his nifty serve, was back in the game.

Thus having the Ministers and Parkers crossing each other floor for first division berth.

The line ups are as follows: Selby Calls: R. Griffin, Capt.; Rogers Selby; Frank Lavy, Choice Freeman and Eddie Hersh.

Ministers: Rex. Beck, Capt.; N. Butler, J. C. Boyd, Carroll Stevens, Chas. E. Chandler and Geo. P. Brown.

A GREAT AID TO PROGRESS

NO other product of man's genius has proved generally beneficial in so many different ways as has the automobile. It is a utility of the highest value, a convenience the importance of which cannot be over-estimated, a medium of pleasure and health available to the majority of the people, and a spur to general progress.

Somebody complained the other day that so much is spent for luxuries charitable enterprises are starved, specifying among the "luxuries" automobiles for the purchase of which the United States is credited with paying $2,000,000,000 a year. But the Federal tax on automobiles in the last fiscal year amounted to $144,000,000, while every one of the states derives a huge annual income from license fees exacted of motorists. Then, the automobile industry and related lines are factors of immense importance in the prosperity of the country as a whole and of every community in the land. Through the automobile's development there have been created a great variety of new demands that make for increased general business. Strike down this comparatively new industry and there would befall such a business blight as never has been imagined by the most gloomy of pessimists.

The automobile has waked up the country as nothing else has. It is responsible for more public improvements for the common benefit than anything else. The gradually emerging good roads system of this land is to be credited to it. And thanks to the good roads, there is to be a better distribution of industries and population, since with motor truck transportation the country has become less dependent upon the railroads.

A BAD BUSINESS

THE farmers, or rather certain agencies that claim to speak the united voice of the farmers, are at Washington, setting up a long and clamorous cry for governmental aid for the agricultural interests, bawling that all is going to smash, unless it be granted instantly.

For many years the farmers were exceptional and honorable, displaying independence in refusing to become mendicants, supplicating for special government favors. It would appear there are those among their alleged representatives that would start them upon a different course.

As a matter of fact there is no concerted demand among the farmers for government financial aid and no expectation of getting it. There are laws existing and proposed that may in a general way promote agricultural prosperity, but for the government to hand out money to individuals is an entirely different proposition.

Further than that the farmers have not been altogether happy in being voiced at Washington by their self-appointed mouthpieces. While back there latter insisted the government price on wheat should be repealed. It was and wheat promptly fell a half dollar a bushel. Then it was further insisted that all the boards having to do with agriculture should be abolished. This was done too, and now the mouthpieces are right back declaring abolition was a mistake and the old order should prevail again.

No class, or vocation should be preferred by the government. This nation has seen some such preference, however, exercised and to the mass of the people it never worked out satisfactorily and no instance of it ever will.

After the assurance in our voracious news columns that the new traffic ordinance embraces the concatenated wisdom of the Automobile club, far be it from us, who possess far more skill in piloting a mule team than a tinizzie, to question the same, but all the same, we would like to know just why no parking is allowed on Second street and Market street is entirely overlooked? An automobile going up Second street is almost an event, while lower Market square presents about the worst traffic jam of any street in the city. Go down some Saturday and see.

We are just wondering if we look as heatish and wicked as some anguished souls seem to take us to be. Editorially and individually we have been simply overwhelmed with documents, pamphlets and papers teaching strange and peculiar doctrines of sanctification and salvation, each guaranteeing itself to be the only fireproof invention of the kind.

It is remarkable how many excuses a man can conjure when he is trying to boost the price of something he has to sell.

Things will never really get back to normal until you can buy a nickel's worth of peanuts for five cents.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MONTYKE

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—George M. Cohan has returned to the membership of the Friars, having resigned during the turmoil of the actors' strike. The theatrical world welcomed with joy for after all Cohan belongs to the actors more than the managers. He severed his long relation as a producer with Sam Harris at the same time and said he was through with the stage.

But the call of Broadway was too strong and this season he came back with three plays, appearing himself in one. It is difficult to realize that the Cohan of today is the strutting "grand old man" Yankee Doodle kid of twenty years ago.

In those days he sent out press sheets announcing "Boys, I'm on my second million!" He craved the spotlight and he managed to keep in it. The years have mellowed and given him poise. Cohan is today a manly, white-haired, there is a serenity about his expression. His clothes are toned down and he might be taken for a stolid middle-aged merchant.

Some even say he has become a high brow and he did produce a play that went over the heads of the critics this season. He admits Shaw but his expression of him is in the Broadway jargon. "He sluces a mazy pun" says Cohan. The actor speaks the most of his time on a farm and raises pigs. In the early days the old time producers were typically tolerant of Cohan. He was just a fresh young upstart. As a matter of fact Cohan is a theatre enigma. He has always kept his rivals guessing. They never knew what he was going to do. Today know his profound respect and he has taken just as seriously as a Tolstoy.

He is regarded by many as one of the best business men in the theatre world. He is worth several millions. Before the season is over he is just as likely as not to appear in a farce, a musical comedy, or a play. He has been back on the Cohan trust and the Cohan trust is now a reality. He is now a reality. He is now a reality.

"Only ten cents?" exclaimed the traveling man. "Why, I have always paid a dollar for a fare." "Ferry, sir, but the law won't allow me to charge more for this fare." "You mean that ten cents is the fare?" "Yes," replied the other very seriously. "I'd be arrested if I charged more." "Alas," cried the traveler who deflated in his eye. "Wait until the next fast driver tries to charge me a dollar. I'll just knock his block off!"

The Impossible Man

Plainsville offered in payment of a bill a gold piece which had a superfluous ring.

"Impossible!" cried the traveler. "It is dated 1863. If it were false, it would have been found and destroyed long ago."
